Re: Cabell County Privilege Log, Vol. 1, Deficiencies, City of Huntington v. AmerisourceBergen Drug Corp. et al., 3:17-cv-01362 (S.D.W. Va.); Cabell County Commission v. AmerisourceBergen Drug Corp. et al., 3:17-cv-01665 (S.D.W. Va.)

Dear Mr. Bogle:

I am writing regarding the first volume of Cabell County's privilege log, which you sent to Defendants on April 14, 2020. Based on your descriptions of documents in the log, we have identified several groups of documents that appear to have been improperly withheld or logged. The contested documents are listed in Appendices A through F.

First, you withheld as "Attorney Work Product" 66 documents that appear to be intake forms related to child welfare or child custody disputes handled by Child Protective Services ("CPS"). See Appendix A. For a document to be withheld as work product, the document must have been prepared "in anticipation of litigation." Westfield Ins. Co. v. Carpenter Reclamation, Inc., 301 F.R.D. 235, 249 (S.D.W. Va. 2014). Documents created in the regular course of business are generally not attorney work product. Id. at 249-250. These 66 documents were created by non-attorney CPS staff members and have document titles indicating that they are routine intake forms for CPS cases. See, e.g., PRVCTRL0000270. If the County nonetheless maintains that these documents are protected by the attorney work-product doctrine, please confirm in writing the identities of the attorneys that provide the basis for that contention. Additionally, please advise how these intake forms were prepared "in anticipation of litigation."

Second, you claim attorney client privilege over documents where neither the metadata nor the privilege entry specify an attorney involved. See Appendix B. Please explain the basis for the privilege claim for these documents, including the identities of the attorneys that provide the basis for the claim.

Third, you claim common interest privilege over a number of documents, but it is unclear what the basis of the common interest is or who the parties to the privilege claim are. See Appendix C. The burden is on the party asserting the privilege claim to establish that a common interest exists. Cf. State ex rel. United Hosp. Ctr, Inc. v. Bedell, 484 S.E.2d 199, 208 (W. Va. 1997). The County has not met this burden with regard to the documents cited in Appendix C.

Fourth, and related to the issue identified in the preceding paragraph, you withheld as “Attorney Client,” “Attorney Work Product” and/or “Common Interest” numerous documents that appear to have been disclosed to third parties, which waives any claim of privilege. See Appendix D. For example, PRVCTRL0000004 through PRVCTRL0000007 are emails between counsel and persons employed by Marshall University, St. Mary’s Hospital, and/or Huntington-Cabell Hospital, which are not parties to this litigation. The disclosure of purportedly privileged information to an individual not embraced by that privilege waives the privilege as to the specific information revealed, as well as to the subject matter disclosed. State ex rel. McCormick v. Zakaib, 430 S.E.2d 316, 319 (W. Va. 1993); Hawkins v. Stables, 148 F.3d 379, 383-84 (4th Cir. 1998). If the County nonetheless maintains that these documents are privileged, please explain the basis for your contention.

Fifth, you have designated certain documents as “Attachments” in your privilege descriptions, but fail to provide Bates numbers for those documents. See Appendix E. Non-privileged parent emails of attachments withheld on the basis of privilege must be produced. Please provide the Bates numbers for these attachments to allow identification of the relevant parent emails in your production.

Sixth, the privilege log reflects a number of documents withheld as privileged because they were forwarded from outside counsel; however, outside counsel is not included in the metadata and the document does not have an attachment. See Appendix F. For example, PRVCTRL0000062 is described as follows: “Email forwarding materials from outside counsel (Levin Papantonio) regarding litigation updates related to current litigation.” It is not clear how material from Mr. Papantonio was transmitted in an email that he did not send, where there is no attachment, and where the document is not a chain forwarding an earlier email from Mr. Papantonio. Please provide additional explanation regarding these entries.

Finally, you have classified document PRVCTRL0000161 as “Not Privileged.” It appears that this document was mistakenly placed on the privilege log and must be produced.

In summary, without further support for the County’s privilege claims as to the contested documents, they must be produced. Please provide such explanations in writing, or produce the contested documents no later than May 13, 2020. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

/s/ Laura Flahive Wu

Re: Cabell County Response to Defendants' May 6, 2020 Letter Regarding Privilege Log, Vol. 1, City of Huntington v.
AmerisourceBergen Drug Corp. et al., 3:17-cv-01362 (S.D.W. Va.);
Cabell County Commission v. AmerisourceBergen Drug Corp. et al.,
3:17-cv-01665 (S.D.W. Va.)

Dear Counsel,

Please consider the below responses to your May 6, 2020 letter.

As an initial matter, many of the logged documents relate to child custody hearings and/or protective investigations conducted by the Cabell County Prosecutor's Office. These documents were reviewed and logged prior to the Court's ruling regarding Prosecutor documents. Nonetheless, Plaintiffs logged the documents in good faith to comply with discovery requirements. That said, Plaintiffs respond to each of Defendants' complaints in turn:

1. Appendix A. You raised concerns about 66 documents that were withheld for Attorney Work Product, listed on Appendix A.¹ The metadata does provide that the document title for these entries includes the phrase "intake info"; however, the titles of the documents are not reflective of the substance of the actual documents. The full title (the title atop each page) is "Cabell County Prosecuting Attorney's Office Information for Abuse and

¹ Plaintiffs review of the log finds 68 documents on the log that likely fit Defendants' classification. Attached hereto is a tabbed spreadsheet of all entries that relate to Defendants' Complaints. The spreadsheet is tabbed according to Defendants' Appendices. Appendix A lists all entries Plaintiffs believe relate to this category, with the correlative privilege ID numbers of Defendants' identified entries highlighted in peach (the two additional entries identified by plaintiffs are not highlighted; PRVCTRL0000307 and 339).

Neglect Petition.” Thus, as is clearly stated in column “K” of the log, the documents are in fact draft petitions prepared for review by counsel. Should Defendants still require additional information regarding these entries and their attendant documents, we are open to meeting and conferring, though we maintain the documents are (1) not subject to production given the Court’s rulings; and (2) privileged as they are draft litigation documents.

2. Appendix B. Consistent with the operative CMO, the documents logged show the top email metadata, which may not reveal the attorney involved. Consequently, Plaintiffs provided the subject/document title that clearly shows these materials relate to either petitions or litigation updates and the basis for privilege describes the same. Nonetheless, Plaintiffs provide Defendants with enhanced descriptions for these documents. See Tab “Appendix B.”
3. Appendix C. All entries that assert common interest clearly disclose counsel within the County Commission, employees of the County Commission, and/or outside counsel (including MDL counsel), and the subject/document titles indicate that the entries are related to current litigation. All such entries provide enough information and support for the privilege asserted (these entries are not tabbed on the enclosed in the interest of brevity and efficiency).
4. Appendix D. These documents clearly relate to the current litigation and are communications in furtherance of the litigation. The third parties are encompassed by the County Commission’s representation of the County and/or in the County’s litigation strategies. Also, clarification on the List of Names is needed regarding “Bob Hansen” and “Robert Hansen.” Bob and Robert are the same person, however, in addition to working as the director of Addiction Services for Marshall Health, he is also the executive director of the office of Drug Control Policy for the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources. Mr. Hansen assumed that post in December 2018, thus, his communications may be privileged when he is working in his capacity as the executive director within DHHR.
5. Appendix E. See enclosed attachment at Appendix E.
6. Appendix F. The reference to Levin Papantonio refers to the listserv provided in the list of names at row 139, namely, opioidlitigation@levinlaw.com, identified as the law firm, LEVIN PAPANTONIO THOMAS MITCHELL RAFFERTY & PROCTOR, PA, not Mr. Papantonio personally. Moreover, the entries fully provide that the document shared by Beth Thompson is a litigation hold letter. As previously discussed, because the CMO requires only the top email be logged, Plaintiffs provided the privilege nexus in the description as is appropriate.
7. PRVCTRL0000161 is privileged. The log erroneously claims it is not privileged. The entry logged shows that the document is an email to an attorney related to a draft petition.

Moreover, this is a document that is not required to be produced pursuant to court order and will not be produced here.

Should the above and enclosed not fully answer all questions related to Cabell County's privilege log we are available to meet and confer prior to May 15th.

Sincerely,
